are through with it, could you learn what it would be for me, as I have to call there for my watch? Have promised it to two or three other as wouldn't ask you, but they're anxious to get it - so I want to get much trouble. I hope you'll be able to help me.

My dear Phoebe - I am really waiting for a delightful trip. Are you back to Windsor? Are you very busy now at the office, but I have to make a flying trip to Windsor on Saturday P.M. Am afraid I won't have time to see you but will, if possible, you finished the "Penny" didn't you Phoebe? If you
